CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SEC. 102(a) There is established under the National Security Council a Central Intelligence Agency with a Director of Central Intelligence who shall be the head thereof[,]. [and with a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence who shall act for, and exercise the powers of, the Director during his absence or disability.] There shall be two Deputy Directors of Central Intelligence: a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Central Intelligence Agency (Deputy Director, Agency) and a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community (Deputy Director, Community). The Director may, to the extent he deems appropriate and without being relieved of his responsibility, delegate to each of the Deputy Directors any of those authorities vested in him by virtue of his position as Director of Central Intelligence and as head of the Central Intelligence Agency. The Director and the Deputy Directors shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among [the commissioned officers of the armed services, whether in active or retired status, or from among] individuals in civilian life, or from among the commissioned officers of the armed services whether in active or retired status: Provided, however, that at no time shall the [two] positions of Director and Deputy Director, Agency, be occupied simultaneously by commissioned officers of the armed services, whether in active or retired status.
